

Mr. Anderson died at the Nye County Hospital following an extended illness. He came to the United States when a young man and resided in Nye county almost continuously since 1902, working as a mining engineer in Tonopah, Manhattan and Round Mountain. He retired due to his health in 1930. His wife died in 1937.