

Tonopah's barber for more than 30 years before his retirement two years ago. Mr. Cassier came to Tonopah 33 years ago to accept employment in the barber shop of the late D. J. Fitzgerald.

He bought his own shop in 1940 and operated it until his retirement. He had been a member of the Barber's union since 1921, he also belonged to the Tonopah Elks lodge.

He is survived by his widow Agnes; son Thomas Bellis of Las Vegas; daughters Mrs. A Smith of Las Vegas, Mrs. R.C. Fehlman of Concord, CA; grandchildren Mrs. John Smith of Iowa City, IA and Alfred Barroni of Elko; three great grandchildren.