

TUBERCULOSIS ENDS LIFE OF NYE MINER

TONOPAH, Oct. 22. — (Special). — Eli Dublevich, aged thirty-six, died Monday at the county hospital where he had been entered as a tubercular patient. The man was in the hospital only two weeks when he succumbed. Deceased had been engaged in mining in Nevada for sixteen years. Nothing is known of his family.