

FORMER SPRINGS BOY DIES OF MENINGITIS

GEORGE HAWK VICTIM OF DREAD DISEASE.

DEATH CAME YESTERDAY AT RHYOLITE.

Dreaded spinal meningitis caused the death of George Hawk, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hawk, until last September residents of this city, living at 506 South El Paso street, who are now living at Rhyolite, Nevada.

Announcement of the death reached the city last evening, and caused much sorrow among the many friends of the family here. No details of the death were received, but it is known that the lad had been ill for some time.

Young Hawk was born in this city and was a student at the public schools. Among the young people he was familiarly known as "Chick," and was a general favorite.

An uncle J. N. Hawk and a grandmother, Mrs. Hawk, reside in this city. Death came yesterday morning, and the burial will be at Rhyolite.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF

George C. Hawk,
Born Nov. 30, 1890.
Died March 29, 1907.
Age 16 yrs. 3 mos. 29 days.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er.
On the border land we left him,
Soon to meet and part no more.
When we leave this world of changes,
When we leave this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved one
In our Father's mansion fair.
