

Southern Nye Resident Dies.

Tonopah, Aug. 28. (Special) Willam F. Morrison, 64 year old resident of Rhyolite, died at the Nye county hospital Sunday from complications, resulting from a ruptured appendix.

The body of Mr. Morrison was taken to Rhyolite where interment took place Monday afternoon.

A native of Oregon, he had resided in the vicinity of Rhyolite for the past 15 years, and had a wide acquaintance in the southern part of Nye county. He is survived by his widow.

(Nevada State Journal, 8/29/1941)