DEATH CLAIMS CARL SCHAFER

TONOPAH, Oct. 30. — (Special) — Carl Schafer, aged sixty-seven years, died at the Nye county hospital where he was a private patient, Sunday morning after having been under treatment for three weeks. Interment was had today at Belmont.

Schafer kept a store at the old county seat of Belmont for thirty-five years, remaining there after the mines closed and county seat moved to Tonopah. During all that time, according to reports, he never left Belmont until taken with his last illness which called for removal to a hospital.
