

Seventy-five year of resident of Tonopah where he had lived the past thirty-two years. His health had been declining for the past five years.

Mr. Wolfe spent his youth on the east coast, getting his education there. When older he moved west, living for a time at Randsburg, CA where he became a mill man. From Randsburg he moved to Millers in 1910 to work in the Tonopah - Belmont mill. In 1918 Mr. Wolfe, along with his family moved to Tonopah where he continued to work until his health no longer allowed it five years ago.

Since the death of his wife he has lived with his son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wolfe.
