
TONOPAH PROSPECTOR IS CALLED BY DEATH

TONOPAH, Oct. 22. — (Special). — Ben Yates, aged sixty-four, one of the best known prospectors and miners of this district, died Monday morning at the county hospital where he was admitted September 28 suffering from peresis. Deceased is without relatives except a nephew whose whereabouts is unknown.
