6 Aug 1946 Reno Evening Gazette
Last Rites For Fred Inman

"Tonopah Aug 6 - Funeral services of Fred Inman resident of Tonopah since the early days of the town were conducted Saturday afternoon at two o'clock from the Presbyterian church with the Rev. Robert Powers officiating. Burial was in the local cemetery.
Mr. Inman died suddenly Thursday morning at the county hospital where he had been a patient at the hospital for several weeks.
Born in Petersburg, Nebr. in 1875, he and his brothers Frank and John were early day arrivals in Candelaria, Tonopah and Goldfield where at various times they owned an operated extensive freight and stage line enterprises. As discovery of Tonopah was made the three brothers rapidly built up business and mining interests in the new mining center.
Survivors include his widow Ida, one brother John Inman of Tonopah, a sister Mrs. Bertha Wright of Nebraska; five children Robert of Manhattan, Geraldine Upton of Pasadena, Calif., Mary Addis and Fred Barton of Hawthorne and Fred Inman of Tonopah; also surviving are eight grandchildren."